will sell at auction, at the THURSDAY, October 18, at 10 o'clock, at the office of J. R.
FARRINGTON, executor of L. C. Clark's estate, deceased, of Vista Siles, situated on Washington Heights. This property is of a large tract on the Heights, purchased by the late Mr. Clark, and contains a number of choice lots, and desirable property on the heights. It commands an exceptional view of the Hudson and Harlem rivers and of the city of New York. The property is well situated, and for healthiness of location, grandeur, beauty and variety of scenery is not surpassed by any property on New York Heights. The property is now in the hands of executors being held out under the direction of the Central Park Commissioners, and which runs through the western portion of the property, will, when completed, add greatly to its accessibility. The property is well situated for the River and River and Riverside Park, will afford the most beautiful and picturesque drives on the island. The property is also but a short distance from the park, and contains a large and elegant two and a half story Dwelling House, in one story, with gas, furnace, range, &c.

Each of the above described properties and fixtures on Broadway, etc., is to be sold in the width of lots, making it one of the best roads on the island. The property will be sold with restrictions as against insurance.

Reporters will be present on the premises, and at the date of the purchase, on house and insurance.
